PROCUREMENT & SUPPLY CHAIN

are pleased to present another unique learning opportunity

Thursday, November 26TH, 2009

Professional Development Meeting

“Are there jobs in the market? Trends and Challenges”

Featuring: Jennifer Morrison, Manager, Procurement and Supply Chain
Michael Page International, Canada

Michael Page International is an Executive Search and Recruitment firm who operates 142 offices in 28 countries worldwide. Michael Page offers recruitment and career planning services in the following areas:

- Accounting
- Banking
- Engineering
- Finance
- Financial Services
- Procurement
- Supply Chain

A review of supply and demand issues in the operations management labour market, this event will be of particular interest to those who are managing a career change, wanting to grow in their career, looking to relocate, or who are about to enter the challenging professions of supply chain management and procurement. It will also be a valuable evening for employers who want to strengthen their operations through investment in their supply chain team.

Location:

We will meet at the main Whitby Public Library - Room 2 – 405 Dundas Street West, Whitby. The library is located on South side of Dundas (Hwy 2) between Henry and King Streets. Parking is in the lot (free at night) just East of the library building. Included in the fees are sandwiches, dessert, and soft drinks. Please let us know if you have a special meal requirement.

Space is limited! Please register before noon on Friday, November 20th by calling 905-683-7710 or visit our chapter web site at www.apics-durham.org.
